

"The Cabaret Years": The Rise of the Nazis in Pre-World War II Berlin

In connection with the Milwaukee Repertory Theater production of Cabaret, which will run September 17 through October 24, the following collaborative programs have been developed by the Harry & Rose Samson Family Jewish Community Center, the Nathan and Esther Pelz Holocaust Education Resource Center and Jewish Museum Milwaukee:

A Presentation of the film Paragraph 175 (2000)

Monday, October 18, 7 pm

Jewish Museum Milwaukee, 1360 N. Prospect Avenue

Followed by a talkback with actors from the Rep's production of Cabaret

No charge for the film; if you choose to tour the Museum, non-members pay Museum admission

Paragraph 175 is a documentary film narrated by Rupert Everett that chronicles the lives of several men who were arrested by the Nazis for homosexuality under Paragraph 175 of the German penal code. Learn more about this important but little known story of the Holocaust.

"The Art of Propaganda": A Panel Discussion

Tuesday, October 26, 7 pm

Jewish Museum Milwaukee, 1360 N. Prospect Avenue

Cost: Free for JMM members; $5 for non-members

Join Max Yela, Head of special Collection for University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee Libraries, Netanya Blanck, Associate Professor of Art History at the Milwaukee Institute of Art and Design and Molly Dubin, Program Coordinator for the Jewish Museum Milwaukee for an exploration and discussion of the creation and collection of propaganda around the world, using artifacts and examples, including several from the period of the Weimar Republic prior to the Holocaust.

To reserve your spot for either event:

Contact Molly Dubin (mollyd@milwaukeejewish.org) or (414) 390-5756, or visit the Jewish Museum Milwaukee website (www.jewishmuseummilwaukee.org).
